presents
the

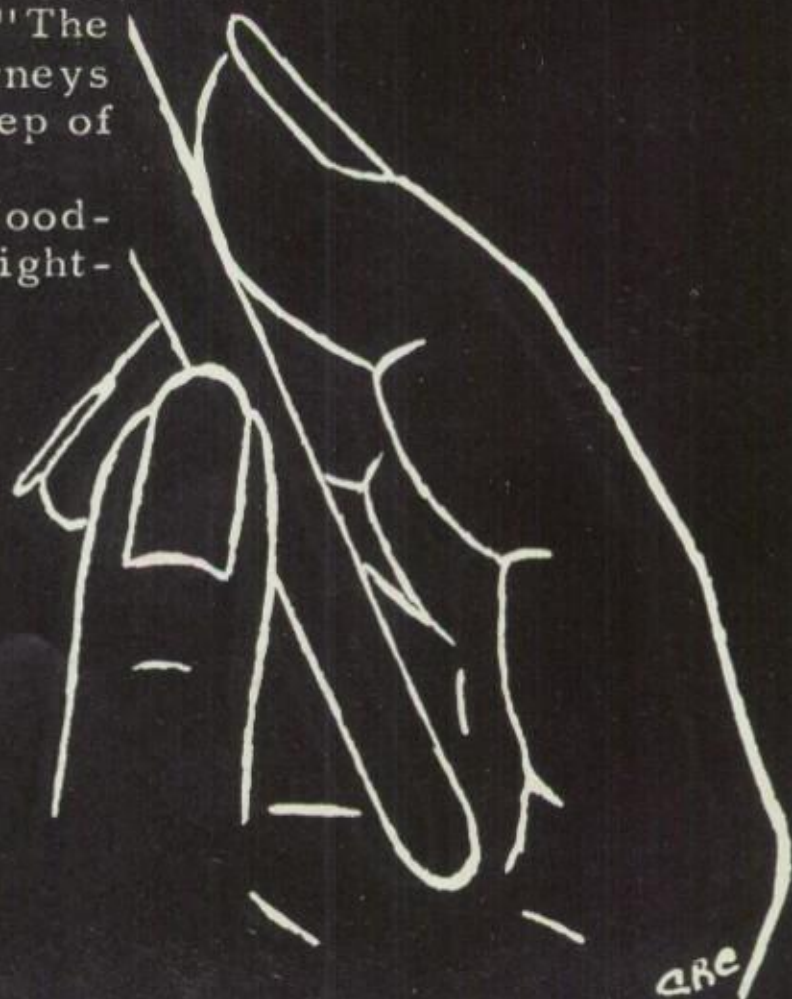

1955 RAILROADER

"There is a magic forest, a shining land where hearts are ever young and new and magical. To it the fortunate may return, always, though the years may be long and sometimes weary. For it is held in the changeless depths of memory."

To preserve the magic of these halcyon days, we have created our own Tin Woodman. . . . And as in the story of "The Wizard of Oz", Tin Woodman journeys with us and our memories every step of the way.

Sincerely, we hope that the Tin Woodman will serve his purpose--that of lighting and lifting tender memories.

Dedication

For his untiring and unrelenting efforts in strengthening us, both physically and mentally; for his never-ending friendship; and for his contribution to the development of our school, we dedicate with sincere pride and much satisfaction the 1955 edition of THE RAILROADER to Coach Marvin G. Miles.

SENIORS

PEGGY ALLEN

I have known the silence of the stars and of the trackless woods.

JANET BARRIER

I love the brooks which down their channels fret
Even more than when I tripped lightly as they.

ALENE BECK

Here, where the world is quiet
I watch the green field growing.

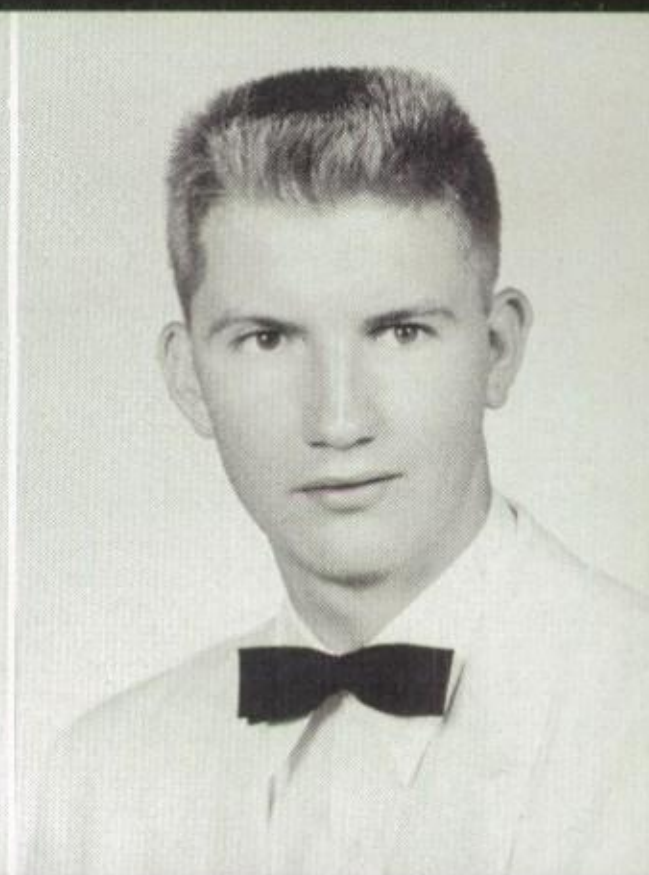

SARA BECK

I strove with none, for none was worth my strife.

SKEET BENTON

A Knight there was, and that a worthy man,
Who, from the very time he first began to mount and ride abroad,
loved chivalry,
Honor and truth, largess and courtesy.

BOBBY BURTON

And idle words will better suit
A fair maid's lips than mine.

TOMMY CHAPMAN
Tall stands the flowering may - thorn tree
Each blossom hath its gem!

JIMMY CHESTER
Therefore let the moon Shine on thee in thy solitary walk.

GLORIA CHUNN
I would be the pink and silver of summer
As I wander down the wooded paths.

LOIS COLEMAN
And catch the lilt of her laughter gay,
For she knows the road to laughter-town!

CAROLYN CRAIG
There she weaves by night and day
A magic web with colors gay.

ELON DENNIS
Forth goes the woodman, leaving unconcerned
The cheerful haunts of man, to wield the ax
And drive the wedge in yonder forest!

DOLORES DORSETT

Dreams, books, are each a wooded world; and books, we know,
Are a substantial world, both pure and good.

NORMAN EAGLE

The tall rock, the mountain, and the deep and gloomy wood,
Their colors and their forms, were then to me
An appetite, a feeling and a love.

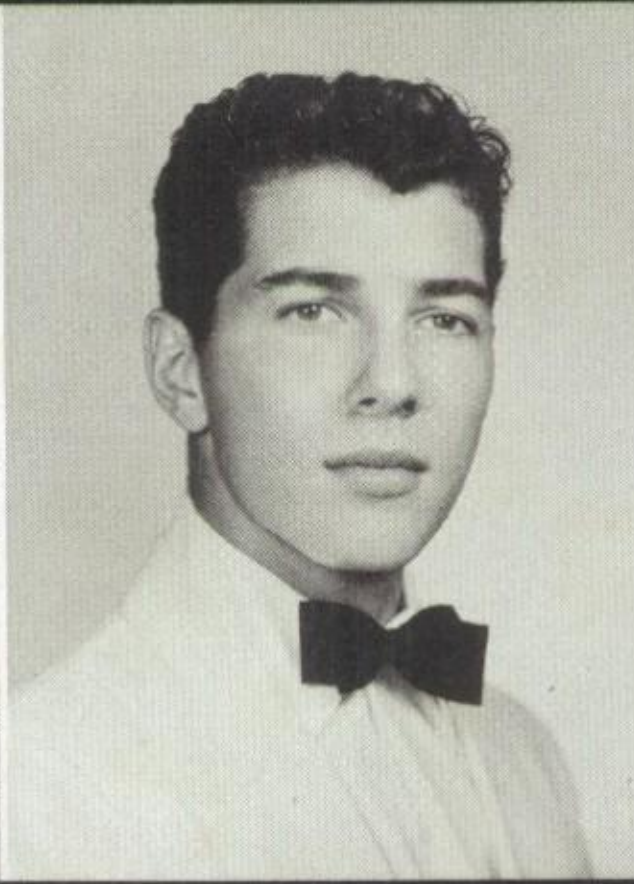

PHYLLIS EDWARDS

The woods are lovely, dark, and deep

BARBARA FEAMSTER

The clouds that gather round the setting sun
Do take a sober coloring from an eye
That hath kept watch--

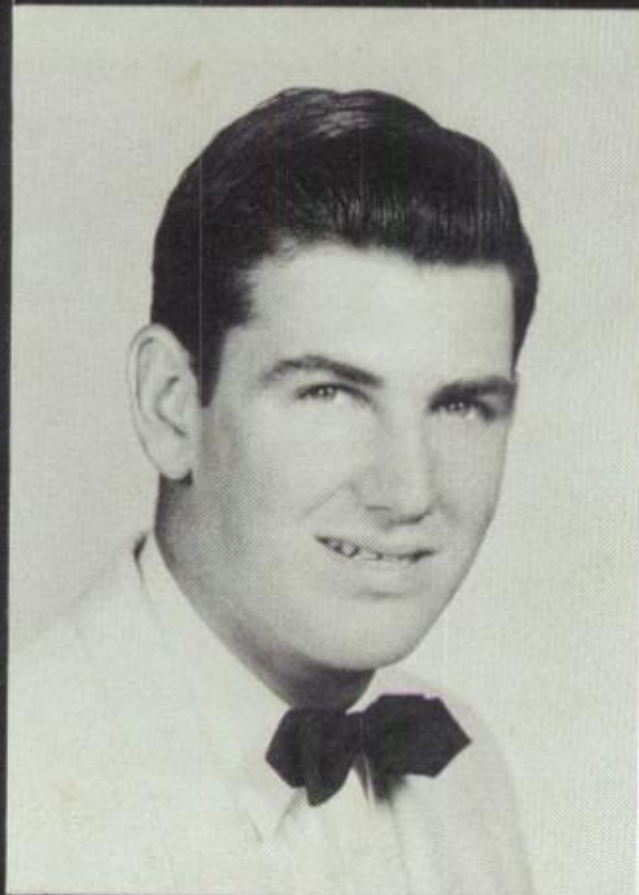

ROBERT FOY

Sometimes a curly shepherd lad,
Or handsome page in crimson clad,
Goes by to towered Camelot.

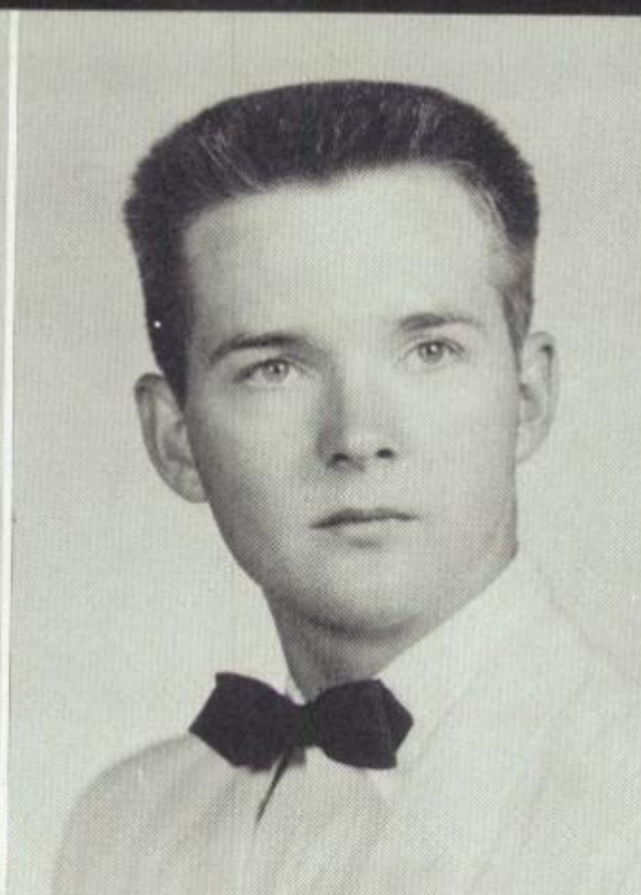

ELIZABETH GAMEWELL

So sweet a face, such angel grace,
In all that land had never been.

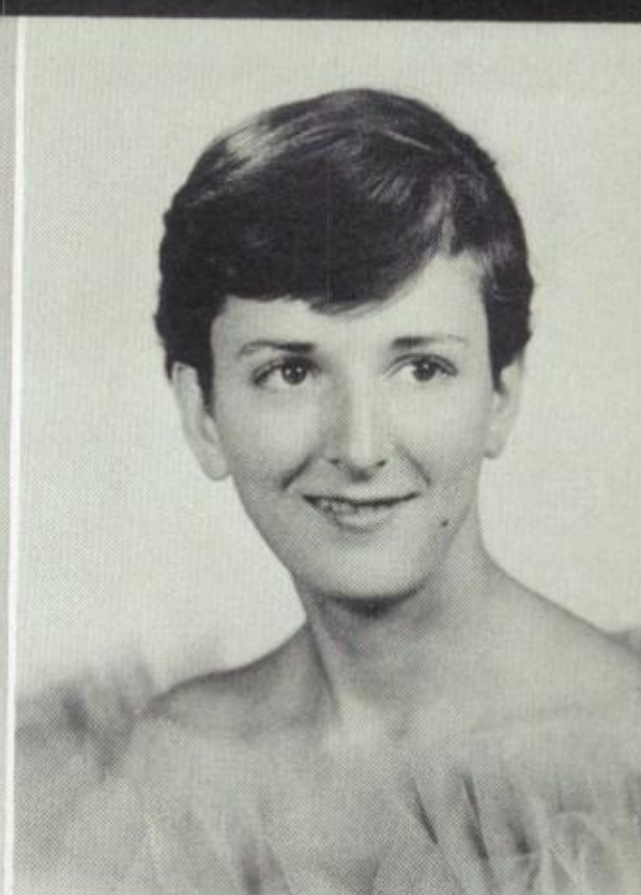

LARRY GRUBB

His listless length at noontide would he stretch,
And pore upon the brook that babbles
by.

RALPH HAIR

Thou merry, laughing sprite,
With spirits feather-light.

DOT HOLT

What are her dreams, this laughing
April lass
With eager tilted head and shining eyes?

JIMMY HOSKINS

What is the voice of strange command
To rise and follow the ways that wend
Over the hills and far away?

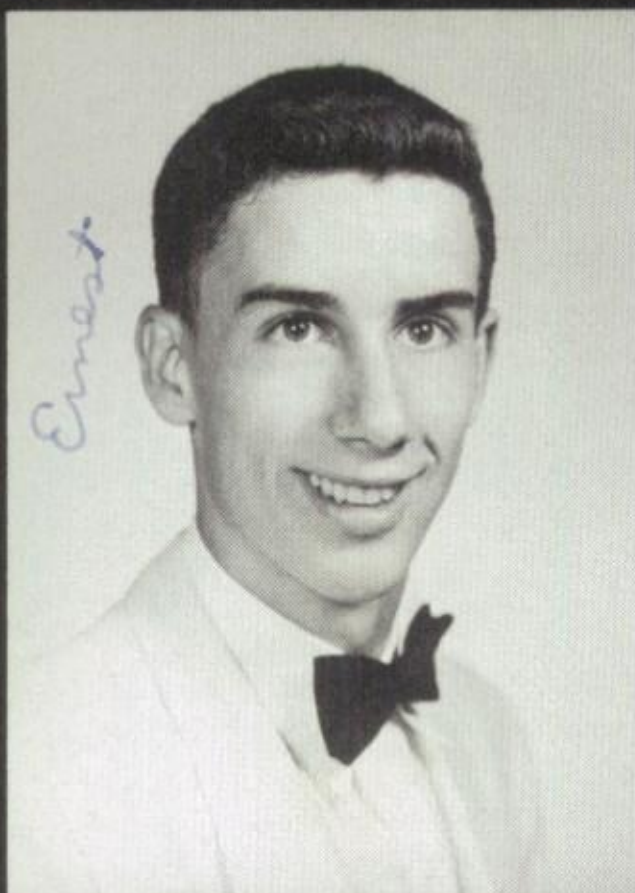

REBA KENNEDY

Along the cool, sequestered vale of life
She keeps the noiseless tenor of her way.

MOZEL KEPLEY

Here, where the world is quiet
I watch the green field growing.

ERNEST KOONE
Wherever he dreams, under mountain or stream,
The spirit he loves remains.

JACK LINEBERRY
And there's never a leaf or a blade too mean
To be some happy creature's palace.

LORETTA MASSEY
The nameless grace which waves in every raven tress
Or softly lightens o'er her face, where thoughts serenely express
How pure, how dear their dwelling place.

JULIA McCOY
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes.

MARLENE MESSICK
And so she weaveth steadily,
And little other care hath she.

VELSA MORRIS
There is a garden in her face
Where roses and white lilies grow.

JUANITA OSBOURNE
 Many and many a verse I hope to write,
 Before the daisies, vermeil rimmed
 and white,
 Hide in deep herbage.

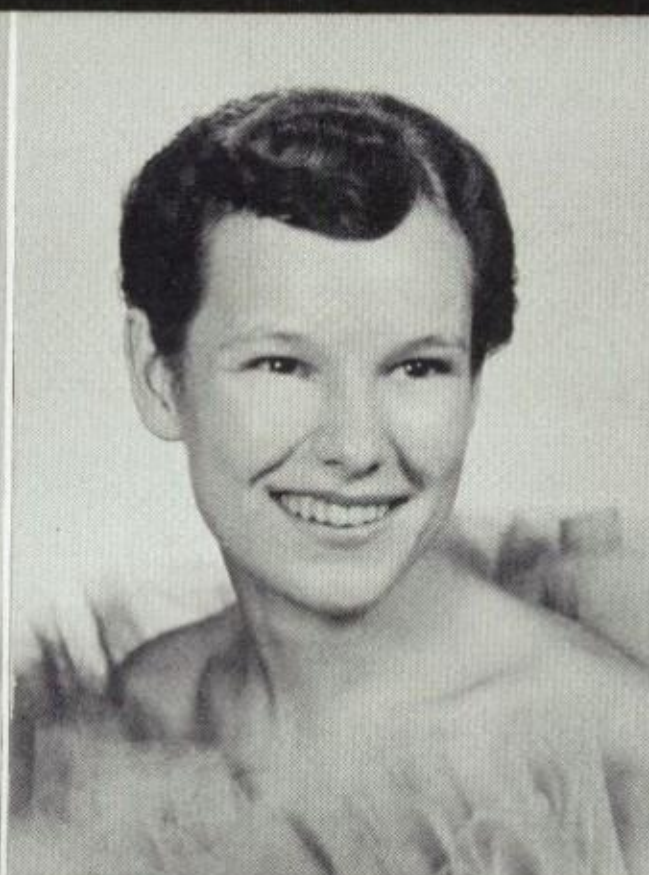

SHERRY POWELL
 A violet by a mossy stone
 Half-hidden from the eye!

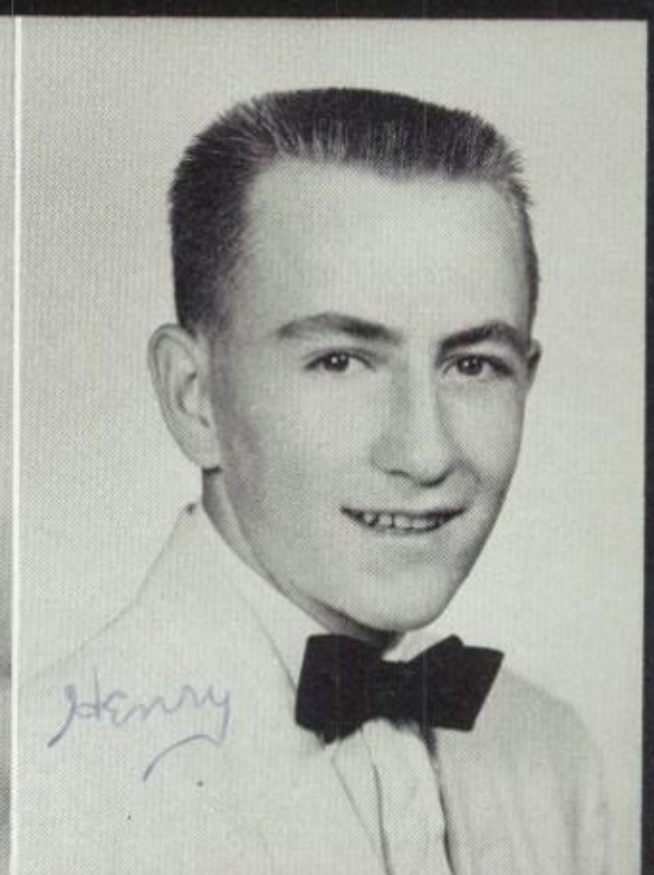

CAROLYN QUEEN
 "And you, the foremost o' them a Shall ride our forest queen--"

MELBERT QUEEN
 She was more fair than words can say
 "It is no wonder," said ole' Oz,
 "She is more beautiful than day."

MAXINE RAINEY
 See! See! that face of hope and joy, Thou needed'st but the crescent
 sheen,
 A quivered Diana to have been.

HENRY RIDENHOUR
 But there are wanderers o'er eternity Whose bark drives on and on, and anchored ne'er shall be.

DONALD SEAMON

With lips unbrightened, wreathless
brow, I stroll:
And would you learn the spells that drowse my soul?

NANCY SHIVES

It was roses, roses, all the way,
With myrtle mixed in my path like mad.

RALPH SHUPING

His pencil was striking, resistless, and grand;
His manners were gentle, complying, and bland;
Born to improve us in every part!

BARBARA SIMS

Behold her, single, in the field,
Yon solitary Highland lass!
Reaping and singing by herself.

SALLY SINK

And here were forests ancient as the hills
Enfolding sunny spots of greenery.

JOHN LEE SMITH

But let autumn bold, with universal tinge of sober gold
Be all about me when I make an end.

VALERIE SMITH
Wings have we, and as far as we can go
We may find pleasure.

CAROLYN SNIDER
Appareled in celestial light,
The glory and the freshness of a dream.

JEANETTE STARNES
There is a pleasure in the pathless woods
Which I can ne'er express, yet cannot all conceal.

GYPSIE TALBERT
Thy voice is on the rolling air;
And in this setting thou art fair.

EDNA ROSE TEMPLETON
Sweet, fair, and wise is she;
The heaven such grace did lend her
That she might admired be.

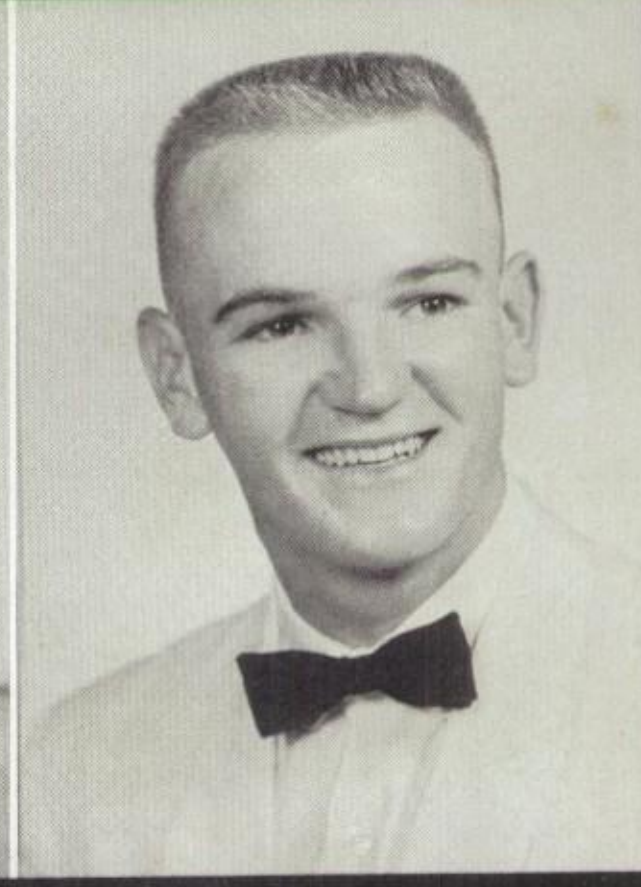

DONALD TREXLER
I live not in myself, but I become Portion of that around me; and to me
High mountains are a feeling--

JIMMY WADDELL
There was a boy; ye knew him well, ye cliffs
And islands of Winander!

JANICE WAGNER
Wilt thou then forget
That on the banks of this delightful stream
We stood together?

CHARLES WELLMAN
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I--
I took the one less traveled by.

SUE WEST
Her eyes were deeper than the depth
Of waters stilled at even.
And the stars in her hair were seven.

SUE WILSON
Back of the forest's clamor - the thinker who drives things through Back of the journey - the dreamer, who's making the dreams come true!

JIMMY WILSON
Never shall the noble forest discern
Such a merry face nor such a brilliant mind.

SUE WISE

Are not the mountains, waves, and skies a part
Of me and of my soul, as I of them?

ABNER WITHERS

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward,
Never doubted clouds would break.

Now all was past--
For all things must come to an end, at last!

Beauty and Grandeur

The American Legion and the Auxiliary, realizing that good democratic citizenship depends upon an informed citizen, have set up Boys' State and Girls' State. Their purpose is to provide an understanding of the structure of our state government and to develop within young leaders, through experience, a sense of responsibility as political citizens.

Edna Templeton, Elizabeth Gamewell, Carolyn Queen.

Girls' State and Boys' State

Jimmy Hoskins, Elon Dennis, Ralph Hair, Abner Withers, Skeet Benton. Absent, Ralph Shuping.

To attend these summer sessions, outstanding rising seniors are chosen from high schools throughout the state. Girls' State and Boys' State convene at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and the University of North Carolina respectively.

Marshals

Loretta Massey, Chief;
Carolyn Craig, Carolyn
Queen, Abner Withers;
Elon Dennis.

Good Citizen

Judging by dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism, the Daughters of the American Revolution, with the aid of the faculty, select, each year, a senior high school girl to receive the Good Citizenship Award.

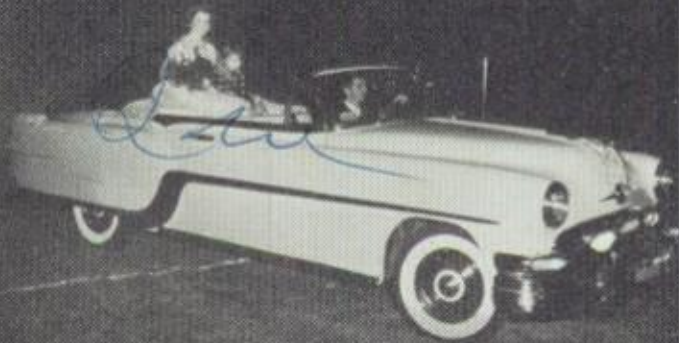

Truly a deserving student, Edna Rose Templeton has gratefully represented Spencer High School as the Elizabeth Maxwell Steele Chapter of the D. A. R. Good Citizen for 1954-1955.

Home

Coming

A very distinctive honor came to our school when James Eagle was named North Carolina Drum Major of 1954.

Competing for this coveted title were outstanding drum majors representing schools throughout the state.

Topping them all was our own drum major with his brilliant routine that won for him first place honors in the state contest.

Thus we proudly present "Mr. Drum Major of North Carolina of 1954."

Congratulations, James!

In Memoriam

Removed from this life while in the prime of his young manhood, Wesley Withers has left behind a never fading memory. Although his passing brought sadness to the hearts of all who knew him, comfort comes from realizing that his life was such an inspiration and that this inspiration will continue to live on reflecting his integrity and goodness. We are proud to have been called his friends.
